

Steps to Becoming an Ambassador

Use this QR code here to sign up

Being an Ambassador is more than volunteering your time. Ambassadors are engaged partners who:

- Embrace the ONE/1000 campaign.
- Have a heart for the hidden people stuck in this dark trade and want to see children, women and men rescued and restored through R1G programs.
- Have joined the front lines as key volunteers in prevention or identification efforts, rescue/exit strategy helps or restoration programs to counter human trafficking and provide holistic restoration.

Sign up Here

Sign up here so we can help you get started. By submitting your information on the linked form, we can ensure that you get the most up to date information, and we can work alongside you directly to make this campaign successful.

2

Set up your profile

Set up your own ONE/1000 partner giving_profile at R1G.org and like/follow R1G social media accounts. Get to know R1G and understand human trafficking through the resources at R1G.org/resources.

3

Know "Why" you are partnering with us

What is your "WHY" to support and join the fight against human trafficking? Develop a 30 second "Why" explanation and a simple reproducible strategy to invite your contact on to your Ambassador team.

4

Know whom you're going to introduce R1G to Create a list of 20 or more from family, friends, and colleagues that are as passionate as yourself. Familiarize yourself with the ONE Partner Level Chart at R1G.org/resources. Determine the level(s) of $50 units you think/know each potential partner can join your team as.

5

Know how & where your R1G introduction will be

Schedule an In-home at your house for a small R1G awareness and partners event or set up a time to share what you're already doing in this fight alongside Rescue 1. During a personal or professional meeting ask "Tell me, what really matters to you? After they say [family, faith, and fill-in], tell them "Yes, me too but let me tell you what also has my heart - Rescue 1 Global.
